DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the tapered threaded sections recited in claims 1-3 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3679

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Komolrochanaporn in view of Higbee.

In regard to claims 1-2 Komolrochanaporn discloses (fig. 2) a pipe fitting comprising:

(a) a body 74 having a bore terminating in a bore opening, the bore opening being threaded with a plurality of internal bore threads 96 of a first material; and

(b) a plurality starter threads 94 disposed either within the bore and being closer to the bore opening than the bore threads or being disposed immediately outside of the bore, the starter threads being axially aligned with the bore threads and being of a second material which is stronger than the first material. However, Komolrochanaporn does not disclose that the threads are tapered or that the last tapered starter thread has a pitch diameter that is at least 2% greater than the pitch diameter of the first tapered bore thread. Komolrochanaporn discloses making the threads out of strong starter threads in order to create a strong threaded connection that is also resistant to damage and that prevents leakage. Higbee teaches tapering threads in order to increase the sealing properties of the threaded joint. Therefore it would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to taper the threads of Komolrochanaporn, as taught by Higbee, in order improve upon the sealing properties of the threaded joint. Although Higbee does not specifically disclose that one thread is at least 2% bigger than the next adjacent smaller diameter thread, it would have been obvious to make the size difference between the threads at least 2% because a change in the size of a prior art device is a design consideration within the skill of the art. In re Rose, 220 F.2d 459, 105 USPQ 237 (CCPA 1955).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 3 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Stoll, Bollfrass et al., Greer, Van der Wissel, Graham, Frame, Simpson and Kennedy all disclose similar couplings common in the art.
